“LOVES EMBRACE”

A Memorial Dedicated to Pam, Shannon and Katie Lychner

“LOVE’S EMBRACE”
 RUFICK MCGUIRE, SCULPTOR

Spring Valley residents Pam, Shannon and Katie Lychner were aboard TWA Flight 800 when it crashed off Long Island, New York, on July 17, 1996. The loss of these three precious lives touched hearts in Houston and around the world. In all, 230 people perished. Pam Lychner, a national leader in criminal justice reform, and her young daughters were active participants in this community. “Love’s Embrace” commemorates the love of life, family and community that they brought to those whose lives they touched.

Dedicated July 15, 1997

“LOVES EMBRACE”

SHANNON EVIAN LYCHNER

A child of grace and charm, ten-year-old Shannon was blessed with a generous, caring heart. More than anything, she loved to help others. Shannon's sweet manner endeared her to everyone, as did her impish grin and sense of humor. Her friends remember how much she loved animals, how funny she was, and how she loved to play the piano and flute. Most of all, though, they remember her huge heart.

“LOVES EMBRACE”

PAMELA SUE LYCHNER

"Pam Lychner was forever guided by the principle that one person can have a profound impact on the world around her, and her life was a testament to that simple creed. She was taken from this world all too soon, but her unique spirit will live on in the hearts of all the people whose lives she touched, and the people of Texas stand pledged to keeping her memory and her work alive..."

...Proclamation by the 75th Legislature of the State of Texas, February 19, 1997.

The world remembers Pam, 37, as a passionate defender of crime victims' rights who was determined to restore integrity to our nation's criminal justice system. The victim of a violent crime in 1990, Pam changed a criminal justice system that until then had ignored the rights of victims. Family and friends remember Pam as a loving wife and mother, a loyal friend, and a woman who enthusiastically lived a life of service. Her gentle, loving spirit made a difference in the lives of those who loved her.

“LOVES EMBRACE”

KATHERINE ELIZABETH LYCHNER

A blonde dynamo with a contagious giggle and a smart little smile, Katie approached everything in her life with courage and determination. Only eight years old, Katie was already an excellent athlete - a powerful swimmer, a fast runner and a graceful gymnast. She met the challenge of every activity with boundless energy. A dauntless spirit lived behind an angelic face.

“I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is my keepsake, which I’ll never part. God has you in his keeping, I have you in my heart.”
